The Coming Worldwide Storm ~ by Roger

Back in the late Spring of 2007, I received two very powerful prophetic messages concerning upcoming worldwide events. I journaled them just as the Lord spoke them to me and shared them only with Gerri. We decided it was not the time to release them and waited upon Father for His direction about their release. That time and confirmation has come. Here are those two entries:

May 15, 2007 – While watching the news Father spoke to me and said, “A series of disastrous events is about to begin in the USA.” I got the sense they would be major events and there will be seven, each one more intense than the previous one.

June 8, 2007 – A breeze began to blow and I thanked Daddy for the breeze because the temps that day were hot. He said to me, “And with the breeze comes the pestilence, son.”

I asked, “A pestilence on us, the USA or what Daddy?”

He said, “A pestilence on the world, son. Every nation will suffer according to its Godlessness. As I already told you, there will be seven major events that will shake world foundations! Many will perish. Many will panic. Many will humble themselves and cry out to Me. Also, many will recognize that My people will prosper in the midst of the pestilence, so there will be jealousy and envy and even hatred for My people worldwide. Persecution will increase in many areas, but fear not, for I am with you and Mine and I will break forth upon you and through you to make very clear that I AM. All will have opportunity to see the truth and choose. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. In the midst of each crisis there will be more and more supernatural release and expressions of My love and power. Multitudes will arise and sing My praises and multitudes will perish, but the end is not yet.” Father

On October 14, 2008 we received an email from a partner in Colorado. She sent a message she had received from John Paul Jackson's Streams Ministries. It was titled “The Coming Perfect Storm.”

John Paul opens his article with the following paragraph: “I originally wrote this Prophetic Bulletin for the Streams Ministries Partners at the beginning of August, 2008. At the urging of my Board, I am now (October 2008) making it a public Prophetic Bulletin. When I first wrote it, little did I know the events that were soon to happen concerning Todd Bentley, the Gulf Hurricanes, Russia's invasion of Georgia, the trains that would collide near Los Angeles, Sara Palin's nomination and the stir that would cause, or September 15th's Stock Market plunge. All of these are early elements of what the Lord called “The Coming Perfect Storm.” Please Click Here to read the entire article.

This prophetic word from John Paul along with many others that have been posted recently all seem to confirm what the Lord has been speaking to others and to Gerri and I about the coming world wide storm.

The bad news and events are coming. The GOOD NEWS is that in the very midst of all that is happening worldwide, Father is with His own, loving us and making every provision for those who have obeyed Him and prepared for these days. There is no need to FEAR. Fear only proves we are not walking in the shelter of His wings. PEACE and REST will be the evidence of those who have chosen intimacy with Him. Baruch Hashem Adonai! Blessed be the name of the Lord!

The Seven Financial Curses ~ by Gerri

Last month we celebrated our 45th wedding anniversary. The number 45 means inheritance! Over those 45 years together we have weathered some rough financial times. I remember the struggles we had early on when the children were just wee tikes and Roger was attending college at night while working as a Park Foreman during the day. I regret that I caved in during that time and went to work when the children were small. I wish I could re-do those days knowing what I know now, but like most young couples, Rog and I 'wanted what we wanted when we wanted it.' It was the lord of self-centeredness and selfishness working in us at the expense of our children. I realized sometime into that season of our lives that these two kids were the only ones we would have and I needed to go home and raise them as a stay at home mom. It was during that time that I met Jesus and the Holy Spirit and our spiritual pilgrimage as a family began!

At that point in our lives, Rog finished college and was hired as the Park Superintendent for the City of Pomona, CA. Things turned around financially for us during this season and went up from there.

When we surrendered to full time ministry, things took a drastic turn as we began to learn to live by faith. It seemed that promotion came from no where and finances were very difficult to come by. It was a tough time because we had been so honored and promoted in most of our secular lives. We struggled like this for years until we met Arthur Burk and he began to minister to us regarding several areas including generational curses. It was at this time that we purchased his CD series on the Seven Curses. Click here to order.

We studied this material for quite some time before we began to slowly see a turn around. This season of our lives has proven to be fruitful and productive for us in many ways. We have been honored on several fronts (some in the world would call it promotion). We received a large donation to the ministry in January of this year which was designated to get us out of debt and in addition to that, our financial base has grown. We are continually looking to see how we can be more effective and productive for the Kingdom and we always welcome new partners to join with us in our efforts. The more we can grow our partner base, the more we can do to take the message of Father's love to the nations. Each day we see more and more the importance of this life changing message. As the world waxes worse and worse in days to come as the prophetic voices are declaring, the need for this message of His love, His joy and His peace are going to be vital. During these difficult financial times the nation has entered into, we are more blessed than we have ever been in ministry. How thankful we are as we watch the stock market and worldly financial institutions plummet, that we can say we owe no man anything but love.

We still have work to do in this part of our healing journey. We are not walking in perfection by any means, but we do see huge progress. Thank You, Lord!

On the next page are listed brief descriptions of the seven curses that we worked on. Perhaps you will find yourself among them as we did. If so, prayer ministry is a key to your freedom!

Looking for our inheritance,

Gerri

Character change requires wisdom and insight that can only come by patiently sorting through painful experiences.

Seven Curses

THE SEVEN CURSES ARE ONLY MARKERS FOR A DEEPER PROBLEM. Malachi 2:2 talks about God cursing the blessings He had previously given to a people group. Each of us was born with a gold mine and a toxic waste dump. The gold mine is our generational blessings but they can be negated by the toxic waste dump of our generational defilement.

The seven foundational curses can keep us from possessing our birthright and the different ways our finances are devoured indicate which one of the curses is neutralizing our blessings. The issue is not wealth; it is our being able to do everything God has called us to do.

THE ARAMEAN CURSE keeps a person from getting justice in any social structure. This is not only justice in courts but also extends to disputed business dealings with the landlord, the mechanic or the Little League coach.

THE MOABITE CURSE causes your income to be devoured before it gets to you. Promises are consistently made that are not kept. Another of its fruits is that most of your personal boundaries are routinely challenged.

THE PHILISTINE CURSE is most readily seen by your being a 'second class citizen' in an elitist organization. No matter what you have in actual abilities your leaders do not consider you qualified for the opportunities at hand.

THE CANAANITE CURSE causes you to be drawn to predatory authorities. You find it very difficult to actually leave and impossible to change the situation.

THE MIDIANITE CURSE is seasonal. People under this curse experience devouring of their money, their possessions and their relationships at the same time, year after year. Holidays tend to be especially gruesome.

JOTHAM'S CURSE causes betrayal and devouring by those inside the camp. This can cause a pattern of church splits or embezzlement by business partners.

THE AMMONITE CURSE is marked by an invasion of one's boundaries. The consequence of this invasion is the loss of your children, not just your money. Children raised under this curse seem to lose touch with God as they become adults. There is no definable trauma, but no matter how zealous they were as youth, the fire goes out and they become uncharacteristically spiritually passive.

Here is one reader's comments: "I just finished reading "Father's Love." It is not merely a 'book' but it is a wonderful expression of Father's love. I could feel the ointment of a healing anointing upon the words of truth and love that flow from Father's heart onto the pages. Thank you for writing it. I pray that it reaches every desperate and ripe heart that is crying out to know Abba Father and His love." FS—Tennessee

Conquering the Religious Spirit - By Tommi Femrite

I am pleased to recommend this book by Tommi to you. She and I along with Beth Alves and my friend, Mary Greenhalge, and others traveled together to Ludenscheid, Germany during the early '90's. On that trip we served on a team of intercessors for a European Vineyard Worship Conference. My intercessory skills were just beginning to develop at that time, and I learned a great deal from Tommi, Beth and Mary on that trip.

When I saw this book advertised on Amazon.com (click here to order) I was anxious to read it simply because Tommi had written it. When I picked it up, I read it in one sitting. It is well written, informative and a must read for all who seriously want to grow in their relationship with the Lord. Here is just a bit of what the book is all about:

Often working as a counterfeit to the Holy Spirit, the religious spirit is perhaps the greatest threat we face to personal, family, territorial, national and global revival. It is one of the enemy's most trustworthy cohorts in derailing Christians from God's path, bogging them down in mindsets of complacency, legalism, control, pride and hypocrisy. The religious spirit can steal your joy, quench your gifts, silence your voice and destroy your relationships.

I encourage you to get a copy today.
